Forward looking statements

There are statements in this document, such as statements that include the words or phrases "outlook", "will likely result", "are expected to", "will continue", "is anticipated", "estimate", "project", "may" or similar expressions that are "forward looking statements". These statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from those suggested by these statements due to, among others, the risks or uncertainties listed below.

These forward looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. Rather, they are based on current views and assumptions and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, many of which are outside our control and are difficult to predict, that may cause actual results or developments to differ materially from any future results or developments expressed or implied by the forward looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward looking statements include, among others: greater than expected costs (including taxes) and expenses, including in relation to the integration of acquisitions such as the Anheuser-Busch acquisition; the risk of unexpected consequences resulting from acquisitions, including the Anheuser-Busch acquisition; our expectations with respect to expansion, premium growth, accretion to reported earnings, working capital improvements and investment income or cash flow projections; lower than expected revenues; greater than expected customer losses and business disruptions including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, following the Anheuser-Busch acquisition; limitations on our ability to contain costs and expenses; local, regional, national and international economic conditions, including the risks of a global recession or a recession in one or more of our key markets, and the impact they may have on us and our customers and our assessment of that impact; the monetary and interest rate policies of central banks, in particular the European Central Bank, the Board of Governors of the US Federal Reserve System, the Bank of England, Banco Central do Brasil and other central banks; continued availability of financing and our ability to achieve our targeted coverage and debt levels and terms; market risks, such as interest rate risk, foreign exchange rate risk, commodity risk, asset price risk, equity market risk, inflation or deflation; our ability to continue to introduce competitive new products and services on a timely, cost-effective basis; the effects of competition and consolidation in the markets in which we operate, which may be influenced by regulation, deregulation or enforcement policies; changes in pricing environments and volatility in commodity prices; regional or general changes in asset valuations; tax consequences of restructuring and our ability to optimise our tax rate after the Anheuser-Busch acquisition; changes in consumer spending; the outcome of pending and future litigation and governmental proceedings; changes in government policies; changes in applicable laws, regulations and taxes in jurisdictions in which we operate including the laws and regulations governing our operations, changes to tax benefit programs as well as actions or decisions of courts and regulators; natural and other disasters; any inability to economically hedge certain risks; inadequate impairment provisions and loss reserves; technological changes; and our success in managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

Certain cost savings and synergies information constitute forward looking statements and may not be representative of the actual cost savings and synergies that we will achieve because they are based on estimates and assumptions that are inherently subject to significant uncertainties which are difficult to predict, and accordingly there can be no assurance that these cost savings and synergies will be realised.

Without prejudice to our obligations under Belgian and US law in relation to disclosure and ongoing information, we undertake no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
